

Bancroft Arnesen Expedition Route

Label the following locations on a map of Antarctica:

- Queen Maud Land
- South Pole
- Transantarctic Mountains
- Ross Ice Shelf
- McMurdo Station
- Fimbul Ice Shelf
- Ross Sea

Trace the Bancroft Arnesen Expedition route using the following information:

- Ann and Liv will start from the Fimbul Ice Shelf in the northern part (upper part) of Queen Maud Land.
- Ann and Liv will ski south from Queen Maud Land to the South Pole.
- After reaching the South Pole, Ann and Liv will continue toward the other end of Antarctica, near the Ross Sea.
- Ann and Liv will have to ski through the Transantarctic Mountains to reach the Ross Ice Shelf.
- After crossing the Ross Ice Shelf, Ann and Liv will complete their Expedition when they reach McMurdo Station.
